EARLY MORNING FIRE.

Mitchell Building in Smithfield Partially Destroyed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Smithfield, Va., March 27.—Fire was discovered here this morning at 4:30 o'clock in the Mitchell building. Heroic work on the part of the volunteer fire company saved the town, for there was a very high wind. The entire second floor, which contained the law office of E. H. Williams, was destroyed, and the greater part of Mr. Williams's library was burned, his loss being $2,000, with $500 insurance. The lower floor was occupied by B. P. Day, who runs a garage. Cars were removed.

WOMAN ARKESTED FORSMUGGLING

Local. have netted the smugglers more than $3,000,000 in the last five years, and finally released until Thursday in $5,000 by United States Commissioner

United States District Attorney Wise said that back of the arrest of Miss Brennan and that of Thomas Shevlin, a deputy collector of customs in Bos-ton, who was taken into custody late a deputy collector of customs in Boston, who was taken into custody late to-day, is a widespread plot of long duration, wherein the "sleeper trunk" scheme was revived. By the scheme trunks shipped under names not on the passenger list were passed through without examination by inspectors who were in league with the smugglers.

The immediate cause of the discovery of this plot was an attempt to get Miss Brennan's baggage through the customs house without examina-

The immediate cause of the discovery of this plot was an attempt to get Miss Brennan's baggage through the customs house without examination when she landed from the Carpathia on March 17. The baggage bore special marks, known to an agent of the system, and by tracing these the alleged conspiracy was revealed.
